OSWALD COMPANY ADDS EXPERTISE AS IT GROWS

CINCINNATI, OHIO – November 16, 2011 - Commercial development and construction firm Oswald Company, Inc. with headquarters in Cincinnati, Ohio announced the firm has recently added several key members to its professional staff. The following professionals have joined the Oswald Team:

Roy Crowthers, Construction Manager – Roy is responsible for overseeing daily operations in the field, including organizing trade contractors, overseeing job site safety and managing project schedule and budget. Roy is a veteran Construction and Project manager and has several years of experience in a similar role at Messer Construction.

Mark Kendall, Construction Manager – In this role, Mark is responsible for planning, directing and managing a construction project's daily field operations. Prior to joining Oswald, Mark was a Project Manager for AEG Power Solutions USA, Inc.

Brian Koewler, Construction Manager – In this role, Brian is responsible for planning, directing and managing a construction project's daily field operations. Brian is the Construction Manager for Zumbiel Packaging's expansion in Hebron, KY. Prior to joining Oswald, Brian spent 14 years with Duke Construction.

Jeniffer Busch, Marketing Director – Jeniffer is responsible for the overall coordination and implementation of Oswald's marketing efforts, supporting the Cincinnati and Raleigh offices. Jeniffer has spent the majority of her career in the construction industry, including 7 years with Columbus, Ohio based Design-Build firm, Dublin Building Systems.

Jeff Rumsey, Assistant Controller – Jeff assists the Controller in daily accounting functions as well as overseeing monthly client billings and analysis of financial and project related data. Jeff received his MBA from the University of Cincinnati with a concentration in Finance and Real Estate and has more than 6 years accounting experience in commercial construction and real estate development.

Nichole Garr, Project Assistant – Nichole joins the Oswald team on-site at The Urology Group in Norwood. She is responsible for all aspects of project administration and document control related to the project. Nichole earned her Bachelor of Business Administration at Thomas Moore College and most recently worked as the Office Manager for construction managers, Dick Corporation.

“We are thrilled to add these key players to the Oswald team,” said Ken Oswald, CEO & President of Oswald Company. “As we grow the organization, we brought in seasoned veterans and individuals who understand the leading trends within our industry, allowing Oswald to broaden our expertise to better serve our clients.”
